Individually designed and handmade using traditional skills and materials

Jane Marshall designs and makes individual pieces of jewellery using traditional metals - sterling silver and copper, and kiln fired vitreous enamels. .

Drawing inspiration from the natural world, this jewellery is designed to be wearable everyday but is still dramatic enough for a special occasion.

Larger silver pieces are hallmarked at Sheffield Assay Office.

The handmade nature of pieces means that there will be some variation from those shown but size, weight and design will be similar.

Please contact me to discuss what might be appropriate for your setting and how we can work together.

Garden

Sterling silver, copper and vitreous enamel, this collection is inspired by the plants in my own garden. Leaves are textured with real leaves and oxidised to highlight the texture. Copper provides a contrast on some pieces and vibrant colour is added by using lead free, vitreous enamel on copper as a background. Enameled pendants are available in a range of colours.
